

New Rockford.

J. D. Reid, rural carrier on route two, put his car out of commission for the time being, last Saturday while making his delivery. A screw had worked loose from the piston rod, resulting in the breaking of the crank case. Jack is making the route with horses until he gets the car repaired.

Miss Miss Githers who has been