

as possible.

Two letters from the War Department addressed to Hilding J. Hultgren and H. Finseth remain uncalled for at the Binford postoffice. Undoubtedly these men are employed on some of the threshing rigs operating in this community, and the owners are requested to ascertain the names of their men, in order that these letters may be delivered.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schroeder and