

ials above its assessment.

The Binford Rifle Club met at the fire hall Tuesday evening and the matter of establishing ranges for practice shooting was taken up. The most suitable place is in the hills, northeast of town, and if this location can be secured, it will make an ideal spot. All the paraphernalia has reached here, consisting of four Springfield rifles, three targets, ammunition belts and 20 rounds of ammunition for each of the 20 members.