

The annual job of improving the roads leading to Binford was commenced Monday morning. Two squads went north and one south. The rain put a dsmp^r on operations at noon and the men returned to town pretty well soaked. Good work was done as far as they got, and it is planned to have another day to finish up as soon as convenient.