

School Notes.

Randy Helland entered the eighth grade, Oct 22.

Visitors in the primary room this month were Mrs. Steve Rorvig, Miss Clara Rorvig, Mrs. Thorn and Mrs. Gorthy.

The new sand table has been installed in the primary room, and the first year pupils will begin the study of Indians, and leading up to the meaning of Thanksgiving, etc.

Class attaining highest average in studies and deportment in Grammar Grades and Highschool was the high school grade; Intermediate, the 4th grade; Primary, the 2nd grade. The room having the highest percentage in attendance was the Grammar and high school room.

As a comparison with a Californian sunrise, I believe the North Dakotan sunset is the prettiest and sublimest sight in the world. The red sun, a flaming ball, disappearing over the hills, dyeing the western sky with crimson and gold, which deepens in into ember, changing to light blue and then gradually darkening into blue-black night. No one can watch such a sunset and not think, "What wonders God hath wrought."
—English pupil.