

NORSKIES WILL GIVE PROGRAM

Sons of Norway Lodge Has Arranged
Fine Entertainment For Their Annual Event.

Another interesting social event will be held in the opera house, on Saturday evening, Feb. 12, when the local Sons of Norway lodge will have open house to all its members and their friends.

The program committee, which is composed of Stephen Rorvig, Ludvig Amundson and Herman Osen, has been endeavoring to secure a class of numbers of the highest order, and though they have not succeeded yet in filling the entire program, enough has been arranged for so that the evening will be a very pleasant one.

It is planned to have that noted Norseman, Peer Stromme, as the principle figure on the program, but at this writing, nothing definite has been heard from him. Mr. Stromme is a very entertaining speaker and is sure to create a lot of amusement among his hearers. If the committee fails to secure Mr. Stromme, an invitation will be extended to either E. G. Quamme of Finley, or R. A. Nestos of Minot. Both of these men are prominent in the state and stand high in the estimation of the Sons of Norway lodge members.

There will also be songs, recitations and speeches by local people. At the conclusion of the program, supper will be served. A small admission fee will be charged.
