

The Sons of Norway lodge gave a program in the opera house last Friday evening, consisting of readings, recitations, songs, and a speech by Mr. P. Myrvold, editor of "Fram," a paper edited at Fargo. After the program followed the supper served by the wives of the members of the lodge.