

The telephone meeting last Saturday was well attended. A committee composed of A. M. Hemerlin, Otto Bruns and Ole L. Anderson was appointed to confer with the Griggs County Telephone company for the purchase of the exchanges at Jessie and Binford, and the rural lines from these two exchanges.

The prevailing sentiment seemed to be in favor of organizing another company in case a satisfactory settlement cannot be made with the Griggs County Telephone Co.