

represented.

An interesting bowling contest took place Monday evening between a team of five against F. C. Boeckman. The one-man side won the contest beating the five by better than 500 pins. In none of the three game series did he fall below the 500 mark.