

SOME BOWLER.

F. C. Boeckman Rolls 75 Games With Average of Over 203.

Just now when bowling holds the "center of the stage" among the sporting events of the northwest, and the big guys are getting their names in the city papers with tadpole stories, announcing that So-and-So rolled a 300 score, along comes one of our home boys, out of obscurity, so to speak, with a record that will make them all sit up and "look a leedle oudt."

Last week F. C. Boeckman rolled 75 games for an average of 203 and a fraction. 40 of these games were over the 200 mark, the highest being 266 and the lowest 145.

Fred has been trying to 'put the "crown" on the record with one perfect score, but so far has been unable to land on 'em right, although he has come near the mark for successive strikes, finishing one game with three and starting the next with eight. He is determined to reach the coveted mark, and we miss our guess if he doesn't.

This is some record to blow about.
