

The Berg Memorial Gymnasium was dedicated at Cooperstown last Friday. U. S. Treasurer John Burke former governor of North Dakota, delivered the dedicatory address. The building is an exceptionally fine one and well adapted for the purpose. At the commencement exercises for the Cooperstown high school Mr. Burke also made the principal address.