

The resignation of G. P. Cross, Jr. as cashier of the First National bank took place a few weeks ago and McHenry has lost one of its influential families as a result. His resignation was a complete surprise to both friends and bank officials but he felt he could better himself by acquiring business interests of his own. B. C. Phipps, who has been interested in the bank for sometime and one of its officials, was elected to the cashiership and has already acquainted himself with the work. Mr. Cross, with his brother, Acton, will form a partnership and will conduct a real estate business at Dawson. He will leave in a few days, driving overland in his car. Mrs. Cross left on Monday for Binford where she will spend a few days before going to her new home. The fire boys gave a farewell party for Mr. Cross recently and expressed their regret at losing their esteemed co-worker. It is the sincere wish of all that prosperity and happiness will be their portion in their new home.—McHenry Tribune.
