

John Knapp has received from Washington his commission as postmaster. John will enter upon his new duties the first of the new year. He will retain the services of Miss Olga Dahlin, who is an efficient and accommodating clerk.

School closed last Thursday.