

The Farmers elevator has been repairing the roofing which was damaged in a wind storm several weeks ago. Two men, who make such work a profession, came along and Manager Retzlaff engaged them. It was sure some sight to see the men at work on the cupalo with their ropes and ladders, apparently at home as tho they were on what Mrs. Mulligan calls, "Terrible Fermy."