

LOCAL NEWS.

Did you get that, Sunday? We sure did.

Are your flags all ready for Memorial day? 'Twill soon be here.

Miss Westley, a neighboring teacher, was a Tuesday visitor in Jessie.

Miss Ryan, a neighboring school matron, was a Jessie visitor Friday.

Fred Claus, our tonorial artist, returned last Friday from a trip east.

Mr. and Mrs. Marks returned to their home in Jamestown this week in their new auto.

Julius Wenzel went to Cooperstown on Monday and returned Tuesday, with a load of trees.

O. M. Rogney, wife and sister, Marion, motored to Binford Friday. Miss Rogney's health is slowly improving.

H. E. Schultz, of Mourhead, paid Jessie a short visit Thursday by auto. He left by train Friday leaving his car for repairs.

Arthur Haugen went to McHenry Saturday evening via motorcycle. He experienced a few mishaps due to the rain on his return Sunday.

If you have an honest to goodness remedy for toothache, tell our good friend, Harvey Larson. Queer, that a man with a toothache gets no sympathy.

The farmers are busy seeding oats and barley these days. Some fields were no doubt damaged by the severe wind storm and will be re-seeded in places.

Mrs. Fred Tollefson and Mrs. O. M. Rogney went to Jamestown on Wednesday and returned Friday. They enjoyed a splendid musical entertainment while there.

After a good dinner at the hotel, Sunday, Jas. Strand, Oliver Jensen, and Fred, Paul and Albert Rickford autoed to Binford to see the Aneta-Binford ball game. They report an enjoyable time, all but the rain.

John Hovel and Gus Suenas are busy building a combination garage and chicken coop for Adolph Arndt. Perhaps Mr. Arndt figures on having the chickens help him solve the question of the high cost of gasoline.

Last Sunday the Lovell base ball club came up to wipe up the local team. After a hard struggle our boys won out, 8 to 3. Robert Thorn pitched for the home boys and Max Arndt for Lovell. Robert had to use his left hand to feed with for two days afterwards. The old players can "come back." Come again, Lovell.

Ed F. Fiebiger thinks there is sure something in the hoodoo proposition. On a recent Sunday he left early with a four horse load of potatoes for Binford. Finding a nice mud puddle he promptly got stuck. Calling on the Herman Hovel family for help he once more began the journey with a two-hour delay. Soon after starting the tail board of his wagon