

JESSIE NEWS.

Jean Haugen returned on Saturday from his trip to Fargo to attend the farm show.

Alex Osmundson returned on Friday from Minneapolis where he had been for medical treatment.

Lost—one perfectly good N. D. reputation for nice weather. Finder please notify The Binford Times.

Oscar Tweed will attend the A. C. at Fargo for the coming few months. The A. C. is doing splendid work for N. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Rule entertained a party of friends from town and country on Friday evening at the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Trostad and O. M. Rogney were Cooperstown visitors on Monday evening, returning Tuesday.

Mrs. O. L. Anderson returned on Friday from a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. Bonnewell at Cooperstown.

The First State bank held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon. The bank has enjoyed the most successful year in its history.

Mrs. E. A. Retzlaff entertained a number of the town and country ladies at an informal gathering Monday afternoon. A delightful lunch was served. There were sixteen guests present.

Wm. La Plante returned on Monday from Adams, Oregon, where he had been to see his aged father who has been seriously ill. While he is somewhat improved, owing to his advanced age will regain his strength slowly.

Rev. E. C. Vermilya of Valley City will give a lecture Tuesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, on the subject of "Hearts." In the evening he will give speak on "Labor on the Farm." These lectures will be held in the hall.

There were a number of our people in attendance at the telephone meeting at Binford on Monday. Those from here were Jas. McCulloch, E. A. Retzlaff, J. W. Ressler, O. M. Rogney, O. L. Anderson and Louis Trostad.

N. O. Haugen with Mrs. Haugen and the younger children were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry St. John on Wednesday evening. N. O. left for Fargo Thursday to attend the implement dealers convention. N. O. is fast learning how to catch "The Branch Flyer."

At a specially called meeting of the school board of Tyrol district on Friday afternoon, held at the schoolhouse, it was decided that our present teacher, having withdrawn his resignation, should finish the school year. Those present at the meeting were, E. F. Fiebiger, E. A. Retzlaff, O. M. Rogney, W. H. Sansburn, clerk, and Miss Tena Regner, county superintendent.

The basket party at the hotel Friday evening was an unqualified success in every way. Over fifty were present and all expressed themselves as having had a splendid time. There was sure an abundance of good things to eat. Music was furnished by Prof. Sigge assisted by Mrs. Tollefson, Gus. Suess, and Oscar Rogney. The auctioneering of the baskets was in charge of Jack Ressler, who proved to do all that could be asked. $36.75 was raised for the new school organ fund. A committee was appointed to assume charge of the fund and also such moneys as will be raised for the same purpose in the future. They will get a good instrument.

The local correspondent from Jessie was evidently misinformed when he stated in his columns that I had resigned teaching in the Jessie school. I am still teaching and expect to finish the term.—Arthur K. Olsen.