

JESSIE NEWS.

Max Arndt can now go to all the ball games. He has just received a new touring car.

Rudolph and Sophie Trost left on Friday for a three weeks visit with relatives at Elkton, S. Dak.

A number of our farm friends are planning to build during the coming months. Like measles, its catching.

Green fields and joyous children ought to make any Griggs county farmer thankful that he lives in N. Dak.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Thorn and two children left Friday morning by auto for Fargo and points in Minnesota.

Julius Thorn and Jas. McCulloch went to Fargo Thursday and returned Friday driving two new Saxon touring cars.

Quite a few of our young people attended the Old Settlers' picnic dance Tuesday, coming home in time to milk the cows.

N. O. Haugen was a business visitor Monday. Mr. Haugen's various business interests keep him on the road for considerable of his time.

Glen Anderson, Olai Lybeck and Jas. Strand went to Red Willow lake Sunday and enjoyed the day boating and fishing, yes, and they caught some fish.

Basil E. and Jas. Edmundson of Cooperstown were Jessie visitors during the past week. They express themselves as greatly pleased with the Jessie business.

Mrs. L. E. Rowley and children of Davidson, Saskatchewan are visiting with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Trost. They will spend the greater part of the summer months here.

Mrs. Norman McCulloch went to Valley City Saturday to visit friends and take in The Birth of a Nation. She also visited with friends in Cooperstown before returning.

Chas. Retzlaff is moving his full crew in the eastern part of the township on road work. This will make it much better for all who travel. Good roads are never an expense.

Harvey Larson says there is simply no limit to the appetite of those four legged pork chops of his. They are growing so fast that he will be obliged to add an addition to the plant.

Jas. McCulloch has joined the army of Ford autoists and is driving a new car which he purchased last Saturday from King-Bruns Auto Co. He says the mud holes have no terrors for him now.

Work on the Ed Fiebiger barn, which will replace the structure that was destroyed by the tornado a few weeks ago, is progressing rapidly and Contractors Hovel and Suess making good headway.

Oscar Rogney and family went to the Old Settlers' picnic Tuesday, in his Overland. After an enjoyable day he returned driving a new Ford touring car. He believes in patronizing the red sentry.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham McCulloch entertained a number of guests on Sunday at their farm home. Those present were Wm. McCulloch and wife, Jas. McCulloch and wife, Mrs. Dave Sansburn, O. M. Rogney, wife and sister, Miss Marion, Geo. Griese and R. F. McIntosh. Everyone enjoyed the good old fashioned supper on the lawn and voted it a success that ought to be repeated.

The Nonpartisan league picnic drew a large number of our people from around about Jessie. They sure had one grand day. Those who went report a good time and returned thoroly satisfied with the program.

Christine Hovel was brought to her home Sunday from the hospital at Northwood where she had been for over two weeks following an operation. The family believes that she will soon regain her accustomed health.

Those who have heard Dr. V. E. Cudd of the Graham school at Kansas City when he was here last will be pleased if they can hear him at Cooperstown during his stay there. Dr. Cudd is certainly an authority in his line and a most genial gentleman to meet. Everyone who can do so should hear him before he has finished his work.

The many friends of Mrs. John Detwiler will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from a serious operation, which she underwent at St. John's hospital in Fargo, Friday of last week. Mr. Detwiler went down Saturday returning Tuesday. It will no doubt be some time before she fully recovers her usual health and strenght. Dr. McGreggor was the physician in charge.

Sunday evening W. J. Dalton and family entertained a number of people at their home. Gus Suess with the clarinet, O. M. Rogney, violin, and Wilma Dalton at the piano and a number of "Joy to the World," song books, made a lively evening, closing with Mrs. Emil Retzlaff at the piano and Mr. Rogney with the violin, playing some of the never to be forgotten musical selections.

Our local ball club went to a glorious defeat at the hands of the Sheyenne club on Sunday afternoon. With La Plant, Ehlers and Husel for the locals and Stromme and Bostrom for Sheyenne made what one of our boys says "was a beautiful swat fest." Result, 10-9, in favor of the other fellow. Hans Opheim made a good impression on all the players with his work as umpire.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Thorn and daughter, Muriel, and Mrs. O. E. Thorn left Thursday to attend the national Lutheran convention at Fargo, and returned Monday in Robert's new Saxon which he bought from Julius Thorn. They report a great throng in attendance at the meeting. They returned by way of Casselton and Hope, making the trip in five hours including stops on the way, finding the roads in good shape.

Rev. Stinson of the M. E. church at Cooperstown, and Rev. Underwood, who is conducting evangelistic services there, came up with a number of their choir and gave us a splendid service at the schoolhouse Sunday afternoon. Rev. Underwood preached a powerful sermon from Rev. 20, 12, "And another book was opened." The singing by the choir was especially fine and was appreciated by all present. Rev. Stinson is making arrangements so that commencing July 2 he will preach in the schoolhouse each second Sunday at 3:30. We are all looking forward to these services.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT

For County Auditor.
To the People of Griggs County:
I am a candidate for re-nomina-