

Bingo! He's Dead!

Kills Kill-Em-Quick, he starts to die—it gets them all for 1 cent loss.

CK GOPHER AND SQUIRREL POISON

odor and its sweet taste. The Easy to use. Simply stir into food and drop into holes. Safe. No mouse seed. Money back Guarantee. 2 sizes, 50c and $1.00, enough from your local dealer.

Dakota, by Anderson's Pharmacy. Ave. N., Minneapolis, Minn.

JESSIE NEWS.

R. F. McIntosh spent Sunday with the N. McCulloch family.

C. O. Johnson of Cooperstown called on friends here Thursday.

Julius Wurst went to Cooperstown Friday, returning Saturday.

N. O. Hougen of McHenry, was a visitor here Thursday on business.

Wm. Trost and Ben Pfeifer were Cooperstown visitors from here Saturday.

L. Ruud and Ben Pfeifer were business visitors at Binford between trains on Friday.

Robert Thorn, Carl Rickford and Dave Wilcox were Cooperstown visitors Tuesday.

Maynard Twedte returned Thursday from Cooperstown where he had dental work done.

Mrs. Frank Arndt left Thursday for Edgely, to see her mother, who is reported very low.

Matt Heller came up from Cooperstown, Monday, to look after his farming interests here.

Mrs. O. E. Retzleff went to Cooperstown, Thursday, for a visit with friends, returning Friday.

Wm. La Plant and A. M. Hemetlin went to Cooperstown, Monday, to attend a meeting of the Masonic Lodge.

W. B. Grannes arrived Saturday from Valley City. Mr. Grannes will teach the remainder of the school term here.

Miss Hannah Haugen left Thursday, for Fargo, where she will visit her sister Edna, who is attending the Grove Seminary.

Louis Trostad shipped a carload of cattle to the St. Paul markets Tuesday. Mr. Trostad and Matt Knudtson went with the car.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Anderson returned Thursday from Cooperstown, where they have been visiting with relatives for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry St John and son, Richard, went to Cooperstown, Friday, returning Saturday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hazard who spent the afternoon here.

Miss Pearl Dahl arrived here Saturday from Valley City for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Norman McCulloch. Miss Dahl has been attending the Valley City Normal the past winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dubeil entertained a number of their friends Saturday evening at a whist and dancing party, a delicious supper was served at midnight and the guests departed in the wee hours of the morning voting Mr. and Mrs. Dubeil royal entertainers.

R. F. McIntosh having resigned his position with the Jessie Hardware Co., where he has been employed for the past year, left Monday for Maxbass, N. D., where he has accepted a position as manager of the Maxbass Mercantile Co. Mr. McIntosh has made a host of friends during his stay here who wish him success in his new venture.

Sutton Reporter: Monday night the I. O. O. F. lodge pulled off an all night session, or practically so. The initiatory degree was given to Chas. and Paul Hafner and Chris Greenland, and following this the first, second, and third degrees were given to the entire class of seven, the other four being H. S. Taylor, Martin McWethy, Roy Lee and Claude Fallen. At the close of the second degree a fine supper was partaken of and an hour spent smoking and telling stories. Hilt Taylor carried off the prize for being the best story teller, with Dr. Lewis as a close second. The final degree was then given and at 4 a. m. all were safely started on their journey home.

Will sell my 8-bottom, good as new, Rumely Tractor plowing rig for half price. Easy terms. Write Nels Quevli, Mason City, Iowa.