

The proposition for bonding the village of McHenry for an electric light plant, which was voted on Tuesday, carried by a good majority, and it is presumed work on the system will be pushed to completion in a short time. The Times congratulates our sister village on their progress, and we take the liberty to invite ourselves up there to help them celebrate the event of turning on the juice.