

library, furnace and coal room.

Mrs. John Moffat of Sutton, has been named as chairman of the Griggs county committee for the North Dakota division of the library war council named by Secretary of War Baker to collect reading matter and to raise a fund for the creation of camp libraries and purchase of books.

Killing frosts during the early