very easily done with but little expense, and labor if started in time and then kept up. Appoint certain things to be done on certain days each week and see that they are done on those days, and so make Binford one of the cleanest, brightest towns in the state. It can be done. Do it now.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Buchheit, who have spent the winter at St. Petersburg, Florida, returned to Binford Monday. The climate at St. Petersburg was very beneficial to Mr. Buchheit's health, and they were so impressed with the place that they have purchased lots there and plan to build a house this summer.

The lease for the new potato warehouse which will be erected in Binford this summer, has been granted by the railroad company, to S. R. Klein. The only available site on the right-of-way is the tract of land lying east of the Thompson Yards. Construction work will commence as soon as the busy spring's work is completed.

The Pekin bank, recently purchased by the members of the First National Bank of McVille, has been taken over the past week by the newly organized second bank at that place instituted by twenty-one stockholders composed of farmers and business men in and about Pekin, thus retaining the one banking institution for that place.

Sentinel-Courier: R. H. Murry, who has been in charge of the N. J. Olsen elevator here for the past year, shipped from Sutton Saturday with with his household goods, five head of horses and farm machinery, for Malta, Montana, where he will take up a homestead. Mrs. Murry left on Friday for Fertile, Minn., to visit for a time until Mr. Murry gets settled in Montana. The Murrys have numerous friends in this city and vicinity who are sorry to hear of their departure, but will wish them every success and happiness in their new home. Mr. Murry will be missed exceedingly by Griggs county mat fans, for the edification of whom he staged many good wrestling matches while a resident of our city. Ray Flick accompanied Mr. Murry and will make his home in Montana during the coming summer.
