

horse's feet.

Dr. E. F. Ringlee was the happiest man in town this morning and his many friends are glad to share his joy with him. He received a telephone message from Fargo, with the good news that he had passed the state dental examination successfully. The Times will have more to say regarding Dr. Ringlee's intentions in our next issue.

A bunch of Coonerstown boosters