

ing on those days.

"Bill has arrove." So sayeth Wm. Robertson on entering The Times office yesterday, from a winter's sojourn in Sulphur Springs, Arkansas, with his brother, Tom. He states they have enjoyed life immensely in Arkansas, and that Tom has acquired a very beautiful piece of property, and is so impressed with the country, that it is likely he will not return to make Binford his home in the future.

---

---