

family of Cooperstown.

Oscar M. Rogney, who lost his hardware store at Jessie, by fire last Thursday morning, is making preparations to open up for business in the Haugen garage building, north of the old site. Mr. Rogney has purchased the old Binford postoffice fixtures and these have already been installed. The loss to Mr. Rogney is a heavy one, in face of the fact of having to purchase another stock at the present high prices.