

Francis Stahl, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stahl, met with an accident last Sunday, while enroute with the family to Red Willow lake. On going up the Adrian hill, a car which was leading the Stahl car, failed to make the grade and started backing down. Mr. Stahl applied the brake to his car but it was too late to avoid the collision. The young fellow was thrown thru the windshield and sustained some bad cuts across the face.