

well throughout the snow.

While cranking an automobile last Saturday evening, Toralph Tweed, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Tollef Tweed, got his wrist bone broken when the engine back-fired. Fortunately the accident occurred here, so the boy was hurried into the doctor's office and the break set in a short time.

Representative elect Baldwin was