

Jack at this season of the year.

Fred Widlund came in from the farm yesterday to do some shopping and pay a few bills, he says—and, he might have added—to talk war. Fred is very pro-German in his sentiments, and blamed if he can't rattle off a string long enough to nearly make you forget that you're neutral.

Mr. J. D. Thompson