

The school board has seen fit to close the school for the remainder of the week, commencing yesterday. Chickenpox, measles etc., has caught so many of the children that they deemed it necessary to renovate the building, and let the children rastle with the deceases out doors awhile.