

Roy L. Brown, of Riverside and Miss Alice D. Atchison, of Gallatin, were united in holy bonds of matrimony yesterday at Cooperstown, Rev. O. D. Purinton officiating. Before lamp-light last evening the merry sleigh bells began to jingle, as both families were pioneer settlers, their many friends gathered for congratulations at the residence of the bride's parents, till the house was filled to overflowing. A grand supper was served, that would satisfy the most fastidious appetite, after which the many trippings of the light fantastic toe was heard in unison with the music furnished by that excellent Pickert String Band and all went merry as a marriage bell. Some lively love songs and sentimental declamation and speeches were indulged in to enliven the occasion. There was a grand display of tokens of friendship, too numerous to mention, ranging in value all the way from a ten cent chromo up to several sets of silver and glassware, from two and a half to three dollars, and about daybreak a happy throng bade them adieu with many a heartfelt wish for them, a long and happy journey through life.
