

Wedding Chimes.

Page, N. D., Nov. 4, 1898.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilsey, on Tuesday evening Nov. 1, when Miss Holdena Neuman and Everald C. McCoy were united in marriage by Rev. Harron, of the M. E. church. At 6 o'clock Mrs. E. M. Adams played the wedding march and the bridal couple entered the room preceded by the officiating clergyman and took their places under a lace-draped arch. After the ceremony, congratulations were offered and the company repaired to the dining room where an elegant supper was served. After which music and conversation were enjoyed. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. The bride was attired in a gray gown trimmed in white satin and lace. She was unattended. Both of the contracting parties are well known here and have a host of friends who wish them a long and happy journey through life.
