

MARRIED, at the St. Peter's church, this city Friday, at 3 A. M., before a large audience, Miss Cora Stranger, of St. Paul, to Mr. B. B. Wasem, of Hope, N. D.

The Bride wore a Milk Blue Satin dress and carried bridal Morning-Glories. The trousseau was elaborate to say the least.

The Groom wore the fashionable Prince Alford and looked handsome.

The Bride just lately graduated from the Academy of Music is an excellent lady.

The Groom is the eldest son of a Merchant Prince of the Northwest and is located at Hope, N. D., where they go to take up their residence. Mr. Wasem has charge of the business department at that place. They will be at home to friends after July 4th. The presents were many and valuable.—Winona Eagle.
