

Folley Bros. expect to commence laying rails on the Hope extension today. They are making three or four new side track here at Hope, and getting ready for the construction train which is expected any minute.