

STRUCK BY THE TRAIN.

Frank Cottle, an old man 70 years of age, was walking on the N. P. track east of Walling station on his way home, when near the point where the N. P. and How tracks cross, he was struck by a freight train and dragged some fifty yards before the train could be stopped. It is thought the old gentleman can not recover.