

Line Up.

The young Americans of Hope met in the town hall Mondy night for the purpose of organizing a militia company. The meeting was called to order by R. E. Morehouse. On motion O. G. Major was elected chairman and R. E. Moorehouse secretary.

The following named gentlemen pledged themselves to respond to any call made by the president of the United States, for the purpose of freeing Cuba and the protection of the American flag:

Geo. Fesler,	F. N. Lang,
Joe Cochran,	Jock Roe,
J. E. Williams,	L. O. Finn,
H. H. Fullmer,	C. J. Wasem,
Martin Rathstock,	T. H. Beadle,
Arno Lang,	J. A. Warner,
R. E. Morehouse,	C. R. Jackson,
	O. G. Major.

F. N. Lang was appointed temporary drillmaster. Moved and seconded that the minutes of this meeting be published in the newspapers of the county. Meeting adjourned to meet Wednesday (last) night.

O. G. Major, chairman.
R. E. Morehouse, secretary.