

The most remarkable mystery that has come before the public lately is the strange disappearance of Angus McMilan who has not been seen or heard of since a week ago last Monday. He came to town two weeks ago today and remained around town until the following Monday, and on that morning he paid out several hundred dollars he owed around town and has not been seen since that morning. His team was left at Shue's barn and also some clothes he had purchased. The last seen of him was in bed about nine o'clock that Monday morning at the Union House. The only information so far obtained is that Angus was seen walking east from town with a hobo and that both were traced across the river at Pedlar's crossing and up on top of the bluffs the other side of the river and that the hobo was seen alone at Mrs. Newell's pasture on Tuesday morning, the day following McMilan's disappearance. Searching parties have thoroughly searched the river and ravines and the townsite but nothing has come of it. It is thought that foul play has been done as Angus would certainly not go away without saying something. All signs point to this hobo as the man wanted and a reward of $300 is offered by the authorities for the conviction of the murderer and a $100 reward is offered for the recovery of the
