

WEDDING BELLS.

The wedding ceremony of S. G. Swanson and Miss Jennie Pratt was performed by Rev. Larke, Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, in the dining room of the Hotel Watts. The floral decorations of roses and smilax were beautiful and elaborate.

The bride wore a rich gown of cream wool and carried a large bouquet of bride's roses.

The bridesmaids Miss Gracia Meyer and Miss Marie Nelson, were dressed in white mull silk over strawberry. Dr. A. E. Hillis and Henry Finke acted as best men. The flower girls, Joyce Butler and Hazel Pratt were dressed in yellow and carried assorted tea roses.

A sumptuous wedding supper was served for about 100 guests. Among these were several relatives of the bride also the grooms father. Miss Margaret Able played the wedding march.

The presents were numerous and costly, consisting of useful and ornamental articles. It was declared by all to be the prettiest nuptial event of the season.

The young couple are starting out under a bright sky for a happy and prosperous future. Our sincere wish is that their cup of happiness may never be less full than at the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Swanson will be at home after July 20th.—Berthold Tribune.
