

ADAM BLINN'S WILL.

---

TESTATOR LEAVES ALL
HIS PROPERTY TO HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.

---

(From The Frankfort Press, Ind.)

"The last will and testament of the late Adam Blinn has been offered for probate. By the terms of the will the estate is divided as follows:

To his son, Jacob Blinn, 184 acres of land in Clinton county, he to pay Mrs. Blinn $200 a year until her death. The land is valued at $8,700.

To Lucy Major, a daughter, of Hope, N. D., a section of land in North Dakota, said devisee being charged with $7,511, she to pay Mrs. Blinn $200 a year until her death.

To Mary Maish, a daughter, and husband, John Maish, 419 acres in this and Boone county, devisees being charged with $12,000. They, too, are to pay Mrs. Blinn $200 a year until her death. They are to pay to his son, Jacob Blinn, $703.66 and to Lucy Major $1,892.66 within one year.

To Catharine Blinn, his wife, he gives all his personal property including notes, demands, claims, unpaid rents, besides annual payments designated in this will.

George Blinn, a brother, is named as executor to serve without bond. The will bears the date of May 15, 1898 and is witnessed by Jacob Hodgen and Wm. R. Hines."