

While out driving Monday evening Nick Bogart's team became frightened and led Nick a merry chase, running through three barb wire fences, the big grove of trees and garden on the Nelson farm and at last managed to throw Nick and the boy out of the buggy. All escaped without injury but the buggy and harness were somewhat worse for the whirl.