

A strange accident occurred last week to Birt Knowles and Link Curry, who were driving home from Fred Mewes threshing machine a mile in the country, when nearly home they discovered that the buggy was a fire and it burned off the box and top in spite of their most vigorous efforts to put the fire out. It is supposed a spark from the threshing engine set a sack a fire and was fanned by motion of buggy.

---