

The creamery is turning out about six hundred pounds of butter per week now. It is expected that the output will be doubled within two weeks. A shipment of butter has been made to Chicago and next week a shipment will be made to N. Y.