

At a fire meeting Monday night arrangements were partly completed—for the first fire. On account of business matters H. I. Standley resigned as secretary and E. H. Badger elected.