

The Village board met yesterday afternoon to consider the question as to whether Steele avenue should be vacated. There were a number present and considerable opposition was developed. After listening to the arguments for and against the Board adjourned until today at four o'clock when a decision will be made.