

VISIT.

Some one has been causing considerable annoyance on the telephone lines west, by cutting the wires, evidently by shooting at birds. The copper wire is soft and easily cut by shot or bullets. The practice should be stopped and probably will as soon as its effect becomes known.