

We understand that telephone lines are to be built east and west from town this spring following closely the rural delivery routes.