

About 5 o'clock last Saturday morning the home of Mrs. Hannah Kjorn, two miles due west of Galesburg, was found by neighbors to be on fire. They rushed in and found Mrs. Kjorn and two boys ages 6 and 11 years, dead in bed. They were badly burned and no doubt smothered to death. Two boys ages 15 and 18 survive the sad accident. To make more sorrow, it will be remembered that a couple of years ago the husband committed suicide by hanging. Coroner Baker was notified and went over immediately. It is not known how the fire originated.
