
OBITUARY.

Mr. James Newell, one of the pioneers of Steele county, whose death was mentioned in this paper last week, was born in Belfast, Ireland, in 1839. Coming to the United States in 1850, his first residence was in Wisconsin where he was married to Miss Sarah Robinson in 1879. The family moved to North Dakota in 1881, settling on the farm where they have lived ever since. Soon after their arrival, he with his wife united with the Congregational church of Hope, of which he has always been a worthy and consistent member. Quiet and unassuming, honest and honorable in all his dealings, against whom no word of reproach was ever heard. The high esteem in which he was held was shown in the large attendance at his funeral. He leaves besides the wife, a son and daughter.
