

The little three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Wilbom, living southwest of town in Barnes county, was kicked on the head by a horse, last week, cutting a horrible gash, which necessitated the doctor taking a number of stitches. At last report the little fellow was getting along nicely.