

SCHOOL NOTES

The French class is progressing nicely. They are now able to carry on a conversation in a limited manner.

The second year english will take up the classics after Christmas.

The third year english had an examination on the De Coverly Papers last week, and have taken up Burke's Conciliation.

The algebra class will take up fractions next week, having finished the H. C. F. and L. C. M. of trinomials.

The class in zoology has finished the grasshopper and its allies and have taken up the study of the butterfly and its allies.

We again take the opportunity to urge parents to keep their children in school every day as the absence from one recitation will fluctuate the students standing.
