

Parcel Shower.

The home of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. M. Philip was a scene of great merriment last evening when Miss Eliza Sussex entertained a number of her friends in honor of Miss Julia Curry, a bride of next week. After the guests had all arrived, the parcels were hidden in various places around the house, and a hilarious half hour followed in watching the search for them by Miss Curry. Musical numbers were then rendered by Misses Larson, Gray and VanDusen.

At 9:30 o'clock the guests were conducted to the dining room; where covers were laid for twelve. The table decorated in pink and white, with a pink and white horseshoe suspended above for good luck, and pink and white carnations alternating at the plates, presented a beautiful appearance.

Soon after refreshments were served, the guests departed, with many fitting words of advice to Miss Curry.

Those present were Misses VanDusen, McLean, Milligan, Curry, Gray, Wakeman, Florence Sussex, Jefferson, Larson, Brewer, Bowen and Carpenter.
