

ALBERTSON-NESHEIM

Miss Eleanor Albertson and Mr. Wm. Nesheim Are United in Marriage in Fergus Falls

A very pretty wedding occurred at the residence of Sheriff and Mrs. Albertson in this city Sunday noon, the contracting parties being their daughter, Miss Eleanor Albertson, and Mr. Wm. Nesheim; of the firm of Nesheim & Co., drug store proprietors of Moorhead. The wedding was a quiet one, only relatives of the contracting parties being in attendance and the ceremony was performed by Rev. T. D. Whittles of the Presbyterian church, at 12 o'clock. Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served, and a social afternoon was enjoyed and at 4:12 p. m. the couple took the flyer for Moorhead. They will go from there to Hope, N. D., and other points, where they will visit Mr. Nesheim's people, and will be at home to their friends in Moorhead after March 1. Miss Albertson is a highly estimable young lady and has been assistant postmistress at Detroit for several years past, her brother-in-law being postmaster there. She resided in Battle Lake from childhood and her numerous friends will extend congratulations on the present auspicious occasion. Mr. Nesheim is one of Moorhead's most highly respected business men. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Albertson, the former a brother of the bride, and Mrs. E. D. Holmes, her sister, were over from Detroit to attend the wedding.—Fargo Call.

Mr. and Mrs. Nesheim arrived in this city Monday morning and are the guests of relatives here. The Pioneer joins with Mr. Nesheim's large circle of old friends in Hope in wishing him and his bride a happy and prosperous journey through life.
